Travelling to Italy by Train

It is surprisingly straightforward to travel from the UK to Italy by train. Just how straightforward your journey is will depend on your final destination in Italy and which route you choose to take.

There are various train routes from the UK to Italy, some fast & direct, some slow and scenic.

The fastest option is by Eurostar & Frecciarossa or TGV. Take a morning Eurostar to Paris and an afternoon Frecciarossa or high-speed TGV to Turin or Milan. Stay overnight and continue to Venice, Florence, Rome or Naples next morning.

Or take an evening Eurostar to Paris, stay overnight, then take the morning Frecciarossa or TGV to Turin or Milan, changing in Milan for onward trains to anywhere in Italy.

A little more expensive but with some great scenery through the Alps you could leave London on an evening Eurostar and stay overnight in Paris. Next day, take a high-speed Lyria TGV to Geneva, then a EuroCity train through the Swiss Alps to Milan. Change in Milan for an Italian high-speed train to Verona, Venice, Bologna, Florence, Rome or Naples.

There are many advantages to travelling by train to Italy. If you travel by day, or break the journey in an intermediate destination, the experience could become an enjoyable part of your holiday.

Train travellers are not subject to the same stringent luggage restrictions as air travellers. Many people find rail travel more relaxing and enjoyable than flying and it makes your holiday more environmentally friendly and slow paced.

Local representatives and agents

As this is a tailor-made program for seasoned travellers, we have no local representatives. We have local agents in Italy who can give any necessary help and guidance and can always be contacted. You will not be visited in your accommodation. Please remember that wherever you are, most hotel managers, owners, and receptionists are often keen to help you with local information. Any problem you experience, you must contact our 24/7 emergency number so that we are given the opportunity of solving them.

Our Prices

As all our holidays are tailor-made, we have adopted a flexible pricing policy based on individual airline fares, which now, as a result of changing airline industry, fluctuate on a regular basis. Our price will reflect the latest prices and any offers from hotels.

Venice Simplon Orient-Express

With grand interiors and flowing champagne, it pioneered the most magnificent mode of transport to tour Europe and its finest cities.

Depart from Paris just before dinner for your overnight journey to Venice. Travel in style across the European landscape before arriving in Venice late afternoon the next day. Life on board is elegant and indulgent. Dress to impress and head to one of the three restaurant cars for a sophisticated dinner. Where gladiators once battled to the death, aficionados now enjoy opera amid an atmosphere of refinement and civility.

Verona's Roman Arena has survived the ravages of time and earthquakes to provide one of the most fascinating modern event venues in the world. Through the summer, a programme of opera takes place on two to six evenings of the week. The tradition of opera at this 2,000-year-old open-air theatre dates from 1913. The opera stage is the biggest in the world. 15,000 spectators fill the venue, and opera performances attract over half a million visitors each year. There is a great range of ticket prices, depending on prestige and location.

Benvenuto SICILY

Italy's dark horse is unquestionably Sicily, cursed by an unfair stereotype that vanishes almost the minute your plane sets down or your boat touches the shore.

Miles and miles of vineyards, endless olive groves sprouting from emerald-green carpets of grass, veritable forests of shiny citrus and fruit trees, rugged silver mountains, all against a backdrop of the deep blue sea. Sicily has a massive amount of world-class art, ranging from Greek to Roman, Byzantine, Arab, Norman, French and Spanish, and some of it enjoys the most astonishing setting, abandoned on a hillside or nestled into a deserted cove. Sicily exudes an ancient allure that captivates the soul. Its enchanting day-to-day ambience effortlessly weaves history into a tapestry as organic as the blossoming prickly pear adorning a rustic country road.

The hidden gem of the Adriatic

Soft sand, well-equipped facilities capable of satisfying even the most demanding visitors, a lively historic centre and two large parks marking its boundaries, the Parco di Levante and the Parco di Ponente: these ingredients will make your stay in Cesenatico, a unique experience for the whole family.

This renowned seaside resort on the Adriatic coast, located between Ravenna and Rimini, does not hide its rich history and is able to take you back in time while leaving you anchored in the present.

The best time to experience Cesenatico is undoubtedly summer, also thanks to a rich calendar of events including concerts, themed evenings with tastings, open-air theatre and evening markets.

Cesenatico rates as one of the best towns in Italy for gastronomy, with a cuisine based on centuries-old seafaring traditions. The harbour has many gourmet restaurants supplied daily with fresh fish in the old fisherman's quarter along the canal banks. There's also an abundance of family-run trattorias and pizzerias which pride themselves on high standards.

LEONARDO CANAL HARBOUR

Leonardo Canal Harbour was designed in 1502 by Leonardo da Vinci and used as a landmark for the development of the city century after century. It is on the quays of the Canal Harbour that you will breathe in the atmosphere of the old fishing village, with the Maritime Museum ready to take you on a journey through the history of traditional boatbuilding in the Adriatic.

Rimini & Milano Marittima

Rimini is the most famous seaside resort on the Adriatic Riviera. Known principally as a beach resort and for its associated nightlife, Rimini does, however, have a historic centre that greatly contrasts its more famous attractions. Rimini's centro storico is characterised by wide boulevards and beautiful piazzas, the most important of which are Piazza Tre Martiri and Piazza Cavour. It's also a great place for shopping, lined as it is with shops in porticoed arcades around its edges.

This region shares similarities with its neighbour, Tuscany, featuring rolling hills and beautiful Adriatic beaches instead of Mediterranean ones, along with charming towns and relaxing thermal spas. Importantly, it's not overcrowded with tourists. The local cuisine is exceptional, highlighted by homemade pasta and piadina, a tasty flatbread with various fillings, paired with fine wines like Sangiovese and Albana. Benvenuto LAKE ORTA

There is a code of silence that surrounds Lake Orta in northern Italy. Visitors are reluctant to tell others about its beauty for fear of increasing ... well, the number of visitors!

The focal point of the lake is the captivating medieval village of Orta San Giulio, often referred to simply as Orta. You could drive right around the lake in a day. Outside Orta, specific sights are few and far between. The ride along the largely flat, east bank of the lake is the best for lake views, while on the west bank, the main road runs mostly high up in the hills and out of sight of the lake.

Some out-of-the-way villages on the west bank are fun to explore, however. Roads stretch away from the lake on either side to the mountains. To the east is Monte Mottarone. To the northwest stretches the beautifully wild and little-visited Valstrona.

Benvenuto SIENA

Is it the best preserved medieval town in Italy? You decide! Siena is the perfect counterpart to Florence. Largely enclosed by ancient walls and with a Gothic cathedral which dates from the 12th Century, this is a city which invites you to explore each square and narrow street. Start at the Piazza del Campo, where the spectacular Palio horse race is held on July 2 and August 16. Age-old rivalries are rekindled as bareback jockeys from Siena's 17 districts contest the race, and there are hundreds of bars and restaurants.

Try ribollita, a vegetable soup or a wild boar stew. Best-known of Siena's desserts is panforte, a calorific bomb usually made from nougat. Florence is easily reached by train, and the Chianti countryside is waiting to be discovered if you hire a car.

Vibrant and animated by the incredible history of its walls, the Leaning Tower of Pisa, the city's symbol and the most famous Italian monument in the world, immediately springs to mind. Along with the cathedral and the baptistery, the Leaning Tower of Pisa is part of a complex of works that Gabriele D'Annunzio dubbed "Miracles", hence the name Piazza Dei Miracoli, which perfectly defines the place that houses them.

Monuments, museums and impressive buildings of inestimable artistic value preserve the memory of Pisa as a Maritime Republic that, for a long time, was the undisputed master of the Mediterranean.

Benvenuto FLORENCE

Florence, the region's capital of Tuscany, has a population of around half a million inhabitants. It is a city which bustles with industry and craft, commerce and culture, art and science. The Chianti area, between Florence and Siena, has some of the most beautiful countrysides in Italy and is famous for its fantastic wines. Florence is an open-air exhibition of art and culture. It is recognised worldwide as the heart of the Renaissance period and the home of fine arts and literature. Florence has powerful symbols of Italian and European culture in every nook and cranny, so it is hard to identify this city with just one character. It may be the sculpture of David by Michelangelo, or perhaps the romantic Ponte Vecchio, or Giotto's bell tower. Still, Florence could be represented by famous people such as Leonardo Da Vinci, Michelangelo or Dante Alighieri, to name a few.

In the evening the city comes alive in the streets around the grand Piazza Maggiore, full of bars, pastry shops, ice cream parlours and restaurants. Benvenuto TURIN

Similarities have been made between Paris in Turin's elegant tree-lined boulevards, and there are echoes of Vienna in its stately art nouveau cafes, but make no mistake. This city is anything but a copycat. Turin, or Torino, is an exciting and often overlooked city in Italy's Piedmont (Piemonte) region. Famous for the Shroud of Turin and Fiat auto plants, the city has a lot more to offer. From its Baroque cafes and architecture to its arcaded shopping promenades and museums, Turin is an excellent city for wandering and exploring. It also makes a good base for exploring nearby mountains and valleys. Turin also briefly served as Italy's first capital and donated its monarchy - the venerable House of Savoy - to the newly unified Italian nation in 1861. More recently, the 2006 Winter Olympics sparked an urban revival in the city, which has spread to its culture and, most deliciously, its cuisine.

Benvenuto VENICE

The word unique has been applied to cities all over the world, but for Venice it really is true. Nowhere on earth compares with this wonderful city of canals and slowly crumbling antiquity, but the phrase “see it now before it disappears” is partly true. Rising water levels threaten the old city, situated on an island and separated from the mainland by a bridge.

The hub of all this activity is St Mark's Square, with the Basilica and Doge's Palace, but one of the most memorable sights is Rialto Bridge, a ten-minute walk away, where you cross the Grand Canal. Venice lives and breathes history and character at every turn, and almost every house is a palace. Whatever else you do, you must experience a gondola ride - with or without a serenade!

4. Your Holiday Price

A. When You Book

All prices, supplements shown in this brochure are correct at time of printing (01 November 2022); but may vary and our current selling prices will be advised at the point of enquiry by telephone and confirmed on our Confirmation Invoice. Prices may increase around cultural events, trade shows or special events taking place and weekend supplements may also apply.

B. VAT and Exchange Rates

Our VAT Registration no is 638286213 and all prices quoted in this brochure include VAT where relevant (at 20% at time of printing). The brochure prices of your travel arrangements were calculated using exchange rates quoted in the Financial Times Guide to World Currencies on 01/11/2025 in relation to the following currencies: Euro 1.10.

C. Tourist Tax

All regions and cities impose a Tourist Tax. Amounts often vary between region and hotel star rating and often payable by customers locally on departure from their hotels. The tax is not included in the cost of the accommodation. It is an additional charge which must be paid directly to the hotel. The hotel will collect the tax on behalf of the local council. The rate of the tax varies from place to place. Please enquire for further details.

D. Payment

When you make your booking you must pay a deposit of £180.00 per person. Should the travel arrangements be on a low cost carrier or on a restricted saver ticket the payment for this part of your booking will be due for payment in full at time of booking (any cancellation or changes to ticketed flights will result in a full loss) and will alter the deposit due.

The balance of the price of your travel arrangements must be paid at least 12 weeks before your departure date. If the deposit and/ or balance is not paid in time, we shall cancel your travel arrangements. If the balance is not paid in time we shall retain your deposit. All monies you pay to the travel agent are held by him on our behalf at all times

5. Alterations or Cancellations of the Bookings By You

If you wish to make a change or add anything to your booking, please contact your Travel Agent. Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the first named person on that booking. We will always do our best to accommodate any changes that you need to make to your confirmed holiday arrangements but these changes may not always be possible.

A. If You Change Your Holiday

If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, for example your chosen departure date or accommodation, an administration charge of £20.00 per person, per change, and any further cost we incur in making this alteration will be applied. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date.

IMPORTANT!

Some arrangements; e.g. flights purchased from certain airlines and certain hotel bookings or other costs may not be refundable or transferrable after a confirmation invoice has been issued and any alteration request may incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that particular part of the holiday arrangements.

B. If You Cancel Your Holiday

You, or any member of your party, may cancel your travel arrangements at any time. Since we incur costs in cancelling your travel arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in para 6. If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

6. Alterations or Cancellations of the Bookings By Us

As we plan your holiday arrangements many months in advance we may occasionally have to make changes or cancel your booking and we reserve the right to do so at any time.

A. If We Change Your Holiday

If we make a major change to your holiday; examples include a change of UK airport, time of departure from the UK delayed by more than 12 hours; accommodation of a lower official classification; cancellation of holiday. These changes are only illustrations and there may be other significant change, we will inform you or your travel agent as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure.

You will have the choice of either;

- (i) accepting the change of arrangements or
- (ii) accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value), or
- (iii) cancelling your holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid.

In some cases we will also pay compensation (see para 6). These options do not apply for minor changes; examples of minor changes include change of airline, flight time by less than 12 hours, routings, aircraft type or overseas arrival airports, change of accommodation to another of the same or higher standard or luggage allowance on flights (including luggage allowance changes if carrier changes), room type changes, loss of facility in room type booked and any other change not specified as major above.

B. If We Cancel Your Holiday

We will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 8 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. We may cancel your holiday before this date if, e.g., the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached. If your holiday is cancelled you can either have a refund of all monies paid or accept an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us, if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value). In some cases we will pay compensation (see para 6).

6. Compensation

If we cancel or make a major change we will pay compensation as detailed below except where the major change or cancellation arises due to reasons of force majeure. The compensation that we offer does not exclude you from claiming more if you are entitled to do so.

Period before scheduled departure within which written changes or cancellations are notified to your travel agent	IF WE MAKE A MAJOR CHANGE TO YOUR HOLIDAY	IF WE CANCEL YOUR HOLIDAY	IF YOU CANCEL YOUR HOLIDAY
	Amount you will receive from us	Amount you will receive from us	Amount of cancellation charges

42 – 31 days	£30	100% of holiday cost	80% of holiday cost
30 days or less	£40	100% of holiday cost	100% of holiday cost

7. Force Majeure

We will not be liable or pay you compensation if our contractual obligations to you are affected by "unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances", meaning any event beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken. Examples include: warfare and acts of terrorism (or threat thereof); civil strife; significant risks to human health such as the outbreak of serious disease at the travel destination or natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes or weather conditions which make it impossible to travel safely to the destination or remain at the travel destination; the act of any government or other national or local authority including port or river authorities; industrial dispute; lock closure; natural or nuclear disaster; fire; chemical or biological disaster; unavoidable technical problems with transport; or similar events outside our control or that of the supplier(s) concerned.

Brexit Implications

Please note that certain travel arrangements may be affected as a result of the United Kingdom's decision to leave the European Union. This could include unavailability of certain flight routes and airports and changes to the visa requirements of British citizens travelling to, within or through the EU. Please rest assured that this is something we will continue to monitor and will advise our customers as soon as possible if we become aware of any confirmed bookings that will be affected.

However, since this is something which is completely unprecedented and outside our control, we would treat any such changes as Force Majeure, and whilst we will endeavour to provide suitable alternative arrangements or refunds where possible, we will not be liable to pay you any compensation.

9. If You Have a Complaint

If you have a problem during your holiday, please refer the matter to the supplier without undue delay (e.g. your hotelier, airline, car rental etc) who will endeavour to put things right. If further assistance is required our resort representative should be contacted (contact numbers are provided with travel documents). If your complaint is not resolved, then you must contact our Emergency Out of Hours Service (number can be found within travel documents) to inform us of any problems. Matters can most easily be resolved for you on the spot, when the supplier can see and understand the exact nature of any problems you have. It is unreasonable not to take any action whilst on holiday and then complain.

In the unlikely event that matter was not resolved locally then please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our; Customer Relations Department, 8-10 London Road, Peterborough, PE2 8AR giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you.

If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this booking.

10. Our Liability to You

We accept responsibility for the package holiday arrangements we agree to provide or arrange for you as an "organiser" under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018 as set out below. As such, we are responsible for the proper provision of all travel services included in the package, as set out in your Confirmation Invoice.

Subject to these Terms and Conditions, if we or our suppliers perform or arrange your contracted holiday arrangements negligently, we will pay you reasonable compensation. Please note that it is your responsibility to show that we or our supplier(s) have been negligent if you wish to make a claim against us.

We will not be responsible or pay you compensation for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description arising out of the package holiday services if it results from:

- The act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected;
- The act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party unconnected with the provision of the services contracted for and which were unavoidable and extraordinary; or
- Force Majeure (see para 7).

In addition, we will not be responsible;

- where you do not enjoy your package holiday or suffer any problems due to something about which you did not tell us when you booked your holiday and where the problems you suffered did not result from any breach of our contract or other fault of ourselves, our suppliers or agents;
- where any losses, expenses, costs or other sum you have suffered relate to any business or profession.

The extent of our liability in respect of international travel by air, rail, or any stay in a hotel will be limited as if we were carriers under the appropriate Conventions, which include The Warsaw/Montreal Convention (international travel by air); The Berne/Cotif Convention (with respect to rail travel); and The Paris Convention (with respect to hotel arrangements). You can ask for copies of these Conventions from our offices. Please contact us.

In addition, you agree that the operating carrier or transport company's own 'Conditions of Carriage' will apply to you on that journey. When arranging transportation for you, we rely on the terms and conditions contained within these international conventions and those 'Conditions of Carriage'. You acknowledge that all of the terms and conditions contained in those 'Conditions of Carriage' form part of your contract with us, as well as the transport company and that those 'Conditions of Carriage' shall be deemed to be included by reference into this contract.

11. Your liability to us

We want all our customers to have an enjoyable holiday. Please remember that all clients are responsible for their own actions and the effect they may have on others. If we (other persons in authority) reasonably believe a customer's behaviour is disruptive or affects others, is threatening or abusive or is likely to damage property, we may end that customer's holiday. This could mean that the customer will be prevented from using the accommodation or transport arranged. If this happens we will not pay compensation or meet expenses incurred as a result.

12. Personal Injury

A. Whilst participating in arrangements made by us

We have taken all reasonable and proper steps to ensure that any services which may be provided to you as part of the holiday arrangements are efficient, safe and reputable suppliers who comply with the local and national laws and regulations of the country in which they provide the services. We have no direct control over the provision of services to customers by suppliers. However, subject to para 2B, 7 & 12B we will pay damages to our customer as entitled under English Law, and the jurisdiction of the English Courts.

B. Unconnected with travel arrangements made by us

If you or any member of your party suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your holiday arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs or benefits received under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000.

13. Accuracy of Brochure

To the best of our knowledge the information contained in this brochure is correct at the time of publication. However, we reserve the right to make changes after publication and will advise you of any changes which we consider significant at the time you book your holiday or when they are finalised. Many of our hotels have individually decorated and styled rooms, therefore the hotel room photographs are set as an example only.

14. Air Passenger Rights

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases is the responsibility of the airline and will not automatically entitle you to refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in para 6. If your airline does not comply with these rules you can make a complaint via the civil aviation authority www.CAA.co.uk.

15. Data Protection Act

In order to process your booking and to ensure your travel arrangements run smoothly and meet your requirements, we need to use the information you provide such as name, address, passport details any special needs etc. We will not pass any information on to any person not responsible for part of your travel arrangements and we take full responsibility for ensuring that proper security measures are in place to protect your information. We must however pass the information on to the relevant suppliers of your holiday arrangements, such as airlines, hotels, transport companies etc.
